Fair Administration of Justice Award

Hon. Irvin G. "Irv" Maze, Kentucky Court of Appeals and Hon. Janet L. Stumbo (Ret.)

Presented to a member of the judiciary who has served and advanced the interests and cause of justice by fairly applying constitutional principles and impartially presiding in criminal proceedings.

W. Robert Lotz Public Policy Award

Rep. Attica Scott, D-KY House District 41 (Jefferson)

Presented to a member of the legislative or executive branches of government who has established and/or implemented public policy that protects individual liberties, ensures a fair process, and guarantees reliable results in criminal cases.

Media Award

Staff of the "Manual RedEye" (duPont Manual High School, Louisville, KY)

Presented to a reporter or editor who has informed Kentucky citizens about the critical constitutional roles of criminal defense lawyers, public defenders or criminal defense organizations in ensuring the individual liberties guaranteed by our Bill of Rights.

Bill of Rights Enforcer Award

Shameka Parrish-Wright and Ezra Ritchin (The Bail Project)

Presented to a citizen who, while not a practicing criminal defense lawyer, has effectively supported and vigilantly protected the Bill of Rights for all citizens accused of crime and subjected to prosecution by the government.

Clarence Darrow Prodigy Award

Kayla Deatherage, Dept. of Public Advocacy (Appeals Branch)

Presented to a member of KACDL who has been practicing law for less than 5 years and has demonstrated precocious legal knowledge and trial skills as a criminal defense advocate, as well as an uncompromising commitment to aggressively defending clients in the spirit and best tradition of Mr. Darrow.

Distinguished Service Award

J. David Niehaus, Virginia H. Snell, Mike Mazzoli and Rebecca Ballard Diloreto

Presented to a member of KACDL whose service to the organization and contributions to its mission have resulted in significant improvement of the criminal justice system.

Frank E Haddad, Jr. Award

Angela M. Rea, Louisville Metro Public Defender's Office

Presented to a criminal defense lawyer in recognition of exceptional professional achievement which has had a profound effect and sustained impact on the protection of the constitutional rights of citizens accused or convicted of a criminal offense.
